20 JUN 1919

C.S. Balasundaram Iyer, Esq., B.A.,

Chief Secretary to the Government of Mysore,

Sir,

On being disappointed to get the work done by the demand of Rs2000 bonus from Mr. Hume Wright, the then Superintendent of Central Jail, Bangalore, the Government, in their Order No 1290/J dated 22-4-1903, requested the Inspector General of Prisons to get the work of revision of the old and obsolete Mysore Jail Manual in his office on the model of British Jail Manuals.

2. Thereupon, Colonel J. Smyth, the then Inspector General of Prisons, ordered me to take up the work in right earnest, and complete it without prejudice to current office work. He also promised that my good services in this direction would eventually be brought to the notice of Government for adequate recognition, in the shape of a handsome honorarium. He also made a remark to the above effect in my Service Register.

3. In obedience to the Inspector General's order, I at once set to work at the revision of the Manual and it took me about seven long years to complete the bulky volume containing about one thousand four-hundred sections with several appendices and this had to be done out of office hours. In submitting the revised manual, Colonel J Smith kindly recommended me to Government for an honorarium as promised before, in his letter No. G. 329 dated 3-1-11.

4. In acknowledging the receipt of the revised draft manual, the Government, in their letter No J.2129/Pris. 44-10-2 dated 26-1-11, intimated to the Inspector General, that the grant of an honorarium to the Manager of his office would be considered, when the Jail Manual was finally revised and approved by Government.

5. Seeing that the draft manual was duly revised, approved, printed and issued by Government some three years ago, and that no orders were passed regarding the grant of an honorarium to me, I submitted an application to the present Inspector General on 20-9- with a request to kindly forward the same to Government, with his recommendation in re. the grant of an honorarium.

6. After this I waited upon the Inspector General more than once from time to time and reminded him of my circumstances; but unfortunately all my requests have been of no avail.

7. It is about seven years since I retired from service and am about to enter my sixty-seventh year of age on the 16th July next.

8. I beg that under the circumstances you will be pleased to obtain the sanction of Government to the grant of the promised honorarium for the laborious work which I did in addition to my regular duties while in service. I may add that as I am growing old in years, early orders may kindly be passed so that I may be able to enjoy the honorarium--whatever it is-- which, I think, I richly deserve.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient and humble servant,

Boobba Rao

Retired Manager,

Office of the Inspector General of Prisons in Mysore.
